

Student Council Welcomes Mr. Carpentieri

by Sharon Feintuck

The new advisor to the Student Council and the Student Liason Committee is Mr. Carpentieri. He replaced Mr. Page who recently moved to Massachusetts.

Student Council

During the Mid-term exam week the student lounge will be closed for renovation. We hope that after this is completed those who use the lounge will have enough respect for it that it will stay in good condition.

The Student Council primarily concerns itself with long term projects. The Council itself can initiate these projects, but we need support and suggestions from the rest of the school so that everyone's ideas can be put into action.

Student Liason

For those of you who aren't familiar with our group, the Student Liason is an organization in which selected students from each high school along with their faculty advisors and representatives from the Board of Education meet once a month to discuss occurrences in the school system.

At the last meeting there was a proposal made concerning next year's school calendar. It was suggested that the February and April vacations be eliminated and replaced with several long weekends and a week's vacation in March. Another aspect of the proposal would make Teacher's Convention Day a school day. Remember, every day that we go to school is to our advantage.

This is only a proposal so we would like to hear your reactions. If you have any ideas please get in touch with Mr. Carpentieri or any of these Student Liason members: Sharon Feintuck, Nancy Simek, Lisa Raffel, Rivka Wasserman, Jay Kogan, John Mocker, Julie Geisler, and Jere Eaton.

King for a Knight

by Cara Herman

There is a great difference of opinion among the girls at Stamford High as to who is the most attractive guy. Might it be charming football star Craig McCurdy or maybe it's adorable but unavailable Eric Riddle? How about also adorable and extremely available John Wachowski?

The all-female staff of the Roundtable is going to clear up the controversy once and for all. The staff is sponsoring a "Mr. Roundtable" contest open to all male students.

Girls, nominate your boyfriends; Guys, nominate yourselves!

Contestants will be judged on charm, personality and looks.

The winner will receive prizes and a night to remember.

Nominations will be accepted in room 205 until January 17th.

Nominees will be announced in the January 26th Roundtable and the winning "Mr. Roundtable" chosen for Valentine's Day.

Color Guard

by Lorraine Taylor

The Winter Colorguard season is under way with practice and shows to come. There are twenty-two people in the Winter Guard: ten flags, six rifles, four sabers, and two standard. The colorguard will be running their own show for the first time on February 18th. The show is a six minutes show and Mickey Kelley will be the instructor. As of now they have about half the show learned, since it's a lot of work but the kids love it.

The Winter Guard will be practicing once a week and will be going out for exhibitions at basketball games. There are fourteen competitions coming up the first of which is on the 28th of January. The colorguard raised their own money to pay for transportation, instructors and equipment. They are currently raising money to buy new uniforms. Last year they won 9 trophies and second place in the high school championship. This year they are hoping to do better, and the show for this year is faster and intricate and should be better.

Thanks to Mr. Zecca for all his efforts to make the guard the success it is.

ARTHUR ASKS

by Sue Finnie

WHAT WOULD YOU DO WITH A MERGANSER?*

- Donna Sparan - Save it for a rainy day.
- Juan Quinoies - Shoot it.
- Wendy Auld - Take my mother for a ride on it.
- Anne Lange - Feed it to my dog.
- Bobby D'Angelis - Eat it for a midnight snack.
- John Colombo - I'd parlay it.
- Teddy Milone - I'd give it to Mr. Cutter as a sex object.
- Sheryl Fogelson - Give it to L.L. to play with it.
- Laura Carroll - Drink it.
- Kerriann Redfield - I'd shove it up my worst enemy's nose.

*A merganser is a duck.

"Stage Door" Director Named

by Cara Herman

The S.H.S. Thespian Society has recently acquired a new director, Bradford Arter. Mr. Arter is a very talented and enthusiastic individual with an extensive background in theatre. We are proud to welcome him as a sponsor of our troupe.

For the first production, Mr. Arter has chosen an entertaining comedy with a large cast, "Stage Door." The show involves a New York City boarding house for aspiring actresses called "The Footlights Club."

There are many parts available, both male and female, and interested students are urged to try out. Auditions are being held on Friday, Jan. 12th, Tuesday, the 16th, and Wednesday, the 17th at 2:00 in room 101. We hope to see some new talent and we are anxious to get everyone involved.

PREP COURSE FOR MARCH & MAY

COLLEGE BOARDS

Juniors

S.A.T.

Classes Start January 27th

KAUFMAN TUTORING SERVICE

914-948-6783 • 914-472-1230

- average score has increased 70-80 points in each part
- licensed, experienced high school teachers only
- over 20 years experience in this field
- many convenient locations